PREVIOUS COURT ACTION

None.

PETITIONING THE COURT

The issuance of a warrant
 The issuance of a summons

The probation officer believes that the offender has violated the following condition(s) of supervision:

Violation Number      Nature of Noncompliance

Mandatory Condition No. 1

1. The defendant shall not commit another federal, state or local crime during the term of supervision.

Standard Conditions No. 19

2. If the defendant is excluded, deported, or removed upon release on probation or supervised release, the term of supervision shall be a non-reporting term of probation or supervised release. The defendant shall not illegally reenter the United States. If the defendant lawfully reenters the United States during the term of probation or supervised release, the defendant shall immediately report in person to the nearest U.S. Probation Office.

On or about March 4, 2017, J. Juan Ramirez-Bautista was found in the United States having been previously denied admission, excluded, deported or removed from the United States on or about November 13, 2016, and the offender had not received the consent of the Attorney General of the United States or the Secretary of the Department of Homeland Security, the successor for this function pursuant to 6 U.S.C. §§ 202(3), 202(4), & 557, to reapply for admission, being voluntarily in the United States in violation of 8 U.S.C. § 1326(a) & (b)(1)/(2).

On March 4, 2017, the United States Border Patrol (USBP) apprehended J. Juan Ramirez-Bautista, along with another individual, near Quemado, Texas. The individuals had activated a sensor in the area which alerted agents to their location. After a brief foot-pursuit, both individuals were apprehended by the agents. Upon questioning, the defendant indicated he was a native and citizen of Mexico, and he admitted to having crossed the international border into the United States illegally. He was arrested and transported to the Brackettville Border Patrol Station for further processing. A Criminal Complaint has been filed in the Del Rio Division of the Western District of Texas, under Docket No. DR:17-M-01477(1), and the defendant remains in federal custody.
